TO OUR FRIENDS AND MEMBERS:

It is with a great deal of gratitude that we take this opportunity to thank so many people for their splendid cooperation in helping to bring about the conditions which make it possible for us to dedicate our chapel at this time.

We are grateful for our Stake Presidency who gave us the original "go ahead" and who have assisted us with wise counsel in many, many ways and upon various occasions.

We appreciate the help we received from the General authorities of the Church and those in the building and finance departments.

We extend special thanks and commendation to you wonderful members who contributed so generously with your time, your money and your many special talents. You have built a monument to your thrift and industry as well as a House of Worship to our Heavenly Father.

You contractors, suppliers and advertisers have earned a special place in our hearts for the splendid work you have done and for your outstanding cooperation. We have enjoyed working with you.

Many of you have given that little bit extra that is typical of true champions. We are witnessing the growth of individuals as well as the growth of the Ward and the church and we know that you are realizing the blessings of your labors.

In conclusion, we want to sincerely thank all of you who have helped in the preparation of this: Memorial Program, Dedication Services and Entertainment; and it is our prayer that our Heavenly Father will continue to bless you in the righteous desires of your hearts.

Sincerely your brethren,

My Prayer

Louis Untermeyer

God, though this life is but a wraith,
Although we know not what we use,
Although we grope with little faith,
Give me the heart to fight and lose.

Ever insurgent let me be,
Make me more daring than devout,
From sleek contentment keep me free,
And fill me with a buoyant doubt.

Open my eyes to visions girt
With beauty and with wonder lit—
But always let me see the dirt,
And all that Spawn and die in it.

Open my ears to music;
Let me thrill with spring's first flutes and drums—
But never let me dare forget,
The bitter ballads of the slums.

From compromise and things half-done,
Keep me with stern stubborn pride,
And when at last this fight is won;
God, keep me still unsatisfied.

"A NEW YEAR'S PRAYER"

May I have the patience to watch and wait,
Courage to meet what men call Fate;
Strength to continue though odds are grim,
With Laughter, Love, and Faith in Him.

Cecilia Steele
V.A. Hospital

The Day's Work

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day, which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance and self-control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content, and a hundred virtues which the idle never know.

Charles Kingsley

The Board of Absentees

We are the Board of Absentees;
We attend our church about as we please;
We judge it will run of itself, you know
And, Sundays, we're just too tired to go!
We are the Board of Absentees;
At business meetings our chance we seize
To tell exactly how things should be run,
But we lift not a finger to get them done.
We are the Board of Absentees;
Men and women of all degrees;
"Shall we give up the church? O never, never!"
"Shall we go today? Well, scarcely ever!"
We look for a world far better than this,
A world of peace and of moderate bliss,
A day of right through the Seven Seas—
Just now we're the Board of Absentees!

Prayer

These are the gifts I ask for thee, Spirit Serene—
Strength for the daily tasks;
Courage to face the road;
Good cheer to help me bear the traveler's load;
and for the hours of rest that come between,
An inward joy in all things heard and seen.

These are the sins I fain would have thee take away—

Malice and cold disdain;
Hot anger, sullen hate;
scorn of the lowly, envy, of the great;
and discontent that cast a shadow gray
On all the brightness of a common day.

Henry Van Dyke

Beatitudes For a Wife

Blessed is she whose daily tasks are a labor of love, for she translates duty into privilege.

Blessed is she who mends socks and toys and broken hearts, for her understanding is a balm to humanity.

Blessed is she who serves laughter and smiles at every meal, for she shall be blessed with goodness.

Blessed is she preserves the sanctity of the Christian home, for hers is a sacred trust that crowns her with dignity.

How To Test Amusements

Do they bless and strengthen, or wear and weaken the body and brain? Do they make resistance to temptation easier or harder?

Do they increase or lessen love for virtue, purity, temperance and justice?

Do they give inspiration and quicken enthusiasm, or stupefy the intellect and harden the moral nature?

Do they draw us nearer or remove us farther from the Christ?

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy work:
I will triumph in the work of thy hands.

MESSAGES OF INSPIRATION

Faith is the first principle of revealed religion. It is written that without faith it is impossible to please God.

It is also written that the just shall live by faith. Therefore, I say it is necessary for all men to have faith in God, the Maker and Creator of all things, the Ruler of heaven and earth. Without faith worlds could not have been made; without it they could not be held in their positions; but by faith all things are possible with God and with man.

—PRESIDENT JOSEPH F. SMITH

* * *

It will not be long until calamities will overtake the human family unless there is speedy repentance. . . . Our Heavenly Father has told us how it can be avoided, and that is our mission, in part, to go into the world and explain to people how it may be avoided, and that people need not be unhappy as they are everywhere but that happiness may be in their lives—because when the Spirit of God burns in your soul, you cannot be otherwise than happy.—President George Albert Smith

Whether a man lives or dies in vain can be measured only by the way he faces his own problems, by the success or failure of the inner conflict within his own soul.

James Conant

—o—

"It is always nice to be expected and not to arrive."—Oscar Wilde. Autolycus.

"There is no room in Christian faith for the heresy that man makes his own God, who changes with the times and with the cultural and intellectual development of the man creating him—this at best is anti-Christ; nor is there space in Christian faith for that other heresy that the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of Moses and of Israel of the time of Moses and later, is not the God of the Christiann world, not the God of today. These heresies will condemn all who hold them."—Pres. J. Reuben Clark, Jr.

* * *

"If the afflictions which have been predicted do come upon us, they will come upon us because we have not kept the faith and because we have been disobedient and have thrown away the opportunities that our Heavenly Father has given us to prepare for the day of calamity which He foretold, over one hundred years ago, would come in this generation.—Elder Harold B. Lee

"Now not only do we need courage in choosing our way, but we also need help. The best source of help is from those who love us. I would like to reconfirm a truth that has been spoken from this pulpit many times, that no one loves us like our parents, like our bishop, like our Heavenly Father. May we always seek counsel and guidance from these three sources.

Bishop Robert L. Simpson

As You Travel Along

As you travel along in your daily toil
Keep love in your heart—in your eyes a smile.
Give a word of cheer to those who are blue;
A warm handclasp will help some, too;
A wave of the hand, a cheery "Good Day"
To those you may meet, or pass by the way . . .
As you travel along.

Start in the day with a word of prayer,
As the birds trill their notes to the morning air.
Let your prayer be to God, like their songs to Heaven,
Thankful for life and the blessings given;
Thinking those thoughts that are right and good,
Doing those deeds that you feel you should . . .
As you travel along.

It is for us to pray not for tasks equal to our powers, but for powers equal to our tasks.

Helen Keller

I saw the mountain stand
Silent, wonderful and grand
Looking out across the land
When the golden light was falling
On distant dome and spire
And I heard a low voice calling,
"Come up Higher, Come up Higher"
From the lowland and the mire, from the mists of earth desire from the Vain pursuit of self
From the attitude of self,
"Come up Higher, Come up Higher."

We regret that there were many members of whom we did not get pictures and we apologize for this.

We do however want to acknowledge our Stake Missionaries, Brother Ted Ranney and Sister Lucille Ranney. Sister Ranney is also a member of the Stake Relief Society Board.

"The Old Stompin' Grounds"
Many meetings were held there
As were dances and parties
And memories we all share.

This is the place

They have just received the "go ahead". John Hughes, Richard Armstrong, and Pres. Simons. Our wish for a new chapel is going to become a reality.

District Presidency at the time our building was started: Cecil Wadsworth, Pres. Ralph Garrett, David Nelson.

There's President Ken Simons
With his hand on the spade
He's breaking ground
For foundations to be laid.

The footings are laid
With such infinite care
Let's hope they hold up
Under our stress and wear.

Four of the group that enjoyed the ground breaking ceremonies and ox-roast. Dale Emery, Ken Simons, Jean Emery, and Laura Hughes.

This is the Branch Presidency During the building of the first phase Dale Emery, Pres. Ken Simons, and Dick Armstrong Show that working together sure pays.

Assistant Supervisors, Pauline Streeter, Betty Simons, and Connie Simons, taking time out for some sunshine after painting on the chapel.

There's sure lots of holes With goop to fill If Kay and Jean don't get it done Then Bro. Root will.

You've heard the saying "Both hands on the plow" But Nellie uses hers On a paint brush, and HOW!

Jean Emery not only paints frames, but gets framed by a ladder.

There's only one brave enough
To go up that high
Who could sure slap on varnish
And that's our gal, Vil

A holiday from work
Meet the gang out to church
Barbara sure takes it easy
While others seek a high perch.

Now it's time to say adieu
To two wonderful friends
Who helped us reach our goal
We hope our friendship never ends.

This is how the paint for the chapel was decided upon. Bro. Child would add a gallon of this or that, and Sr. Stoddard would test it for the right color.

It's really a man's job
But Fran and Jean had fun
And were never more thankful
Than when the insulating was done.

Project clerk Waldo Stoddard, makes sure Pres.
Simons pays the bills, and signs all necessary papers.
